Hands

Burn this body down. To the ash and the dust, from which it came. I curse
Within my heart, but sing a holy song. I am a wolf among the sheep. I am Calling out your name. I am broken at your feet. Release. Release me. I am Bound by the chains of temptation. I am bound by the demons, staring back.
Let your mercy rain upon us. Take hold of my soul and put this body in the Earth. By your blood I am alive. By your grace I am released.
