

Pink and Blue

Hannah DiAmond

I waited for so long for a guy like you
This guy likes me too, and I think I like you maybe
I know that you're so unavailable
But you call me all the time, and you know I've got you on my mind

We look good in pink and blue
You love me, maybe it's true
You say, "Baby, how are you?"
I'm okay, how about you?
We look good in pink and blue
You love me, maybe it's true
You say, "Baby, how are you?"
I'm okay, how about you?

I'm waiting for you to make up your mind
If you take me for a ride, do you think I'll be your girlfriend?
I don't wanna wake up and still feel like I'm dreaming
All I wanna do is tell the world how I'm feeling
You know it's true
Me and you

We look good in pink and blue
You love me, maybe it's true
You say, "Baby, how are you?"
I'm okay, how about you?
We look good in pink and blue
You love me, maybe it's true
You say, "Baby, how are you?"
I'm okay, how about you?

Hey, why don't you hit me up?
I know you've got time, so come and pick me up
You know you want to, so, why don't you hit me up?
I know you've got time so come and pick me up
You know you want to hang, why don't you hit me up?
I know you've got time, so come and pick me up
You know you want to, so, why don't you hit me up?
I know you've got time, how about you?

We look good in pink and blue
You love me, maybe it's true
You say, "Baby, how are you?"
I'm okay, how about you?
We look good in pink and blue
You love me, maybe it's true
You say, "Baby, how are you?"
I'm okay, how about you?
