

No Law or Order

Hanoi Rocks

Police brutalities scaring up the nation
Juvenile delinquents spread fear in the central station
There's no law or order law or order maybe it's total control
Oh, I don't know
But they can bend it and shape it and a little bit break it
To make it easier to follow

Criminal activities late at nite in the subway Newspaper headlines all across the nation
There's no law or order
law or order, everything's out of control
Well I don't know
But they can bend it and shape it and a little bit break it
To make it easier to follow

(spoken:) Hey Johnny! Where are you going with that gun in your hand
Don't you understand, they'll just kick you down to the floor
They won't give you another chance, you're all alone
And they're a million, they'll just lock you in
For evermore, y'know
The only choice you got, boys, is to be nasty Hate everybody and everybody will hate you
You can bet on that!
You know, You can't fight the justice but the justice can fight you, even if it wasn't you it's you, Johnny.

There's no law or order
There's no law or order
There's no law or order anymore

But they can bend it and shape it and a little bit break it
To make it easier to follow
Yes they can bend it and shape it and a little bit break it
The rules cannot be hollowed

There's no law or order
There's no law or order
There's no law or order anymore
