Nothing New

Hanoi Rocks

Monster time again You see people on the streets The talk of the town Wherever you go to They come to your home They operate you by the telephone, you know Coca cola propaganda Religion, a cult they're telling you They're telling you it's the only truth Oh yes they do You try to escape But there's nowhere to hide So you turn on your tv screen It's black and white, politics all night But who really pays the bill? Nothing new going on inside of you You see people on the streets The talk of the town wherever you go to There's not a place to run to They never let you go Nothing new goin' on inside the view
