

Forgive & Forget

Harem Scarem

I should forgive you
And forget you too
Broken lines I've traced
I will now erase
Now we run like bullets from a gun with both our hands untied
I would hide the truth inside to keep us firmly in denile
Now go forgive and forget it all
Before you fill with hate
Just like me
Now go forgive and forget it all
It's the only way out that I see
I can't pretend I care
I can't pull it from thin air
The words are on my face
Spelling our disgrace
