

In the Unknown

Harem Scarem

I'm on a fast train bound to nowhere
I'm riding destiny
No matter where I go
There's no escaping me
I'm on a high wire act with no rope
Afraid to even breathe
Know you're not alone
But you can't ever leave

And the world will keep turning around
Till everyone is lost

We're running out of faith
We're running out of time
We're living out our lives in the dark
When emotions get higher
Showing grace under fire
We're running out of faith
We're running out of time
We're living out our lives in the dark
When emotions get higher
Showing grace under fire

They'll be times when you're falling backwards
With the devil's making deals
Embrace it all in armour made of steal

And the world keeps turning around
Till everyone is lost

We're running out of faith
We're running out of time
We're living out our lives in the dark

When emotions get higher
Showing grace under fire
We're running out of faith
We're running out of time
We're living out our lives in the dark
When emotions get higher
Showing grace under fire

Here in the unknown, in the unknown
We're in the unknown

And the world keeps turning around
And the world keeps turning around
Till everyone is lost

We're running out of faith
We're running out of time
We're living out our lives in the dark
When emotions get higher
Showing grace under fire
We're running out of faith

When emotions get higher

Here in the unknown, in the unknown
We're in the unknown, in the unknown

Showing grace under fire
