

Understand You

Harem Scarem

Looking back to find
What went wrong this time
We're falling to pieces
We fall out of line

We fall into holes in empty times
I will try to understand you
I will turn this all around
The world grows colder

I'm your shoulder
I will turn this all around
I can't find myself
And you were lost as well

Never wait on a miracle
Got nothing to loose
And everything to gain
