

I'm sorry that I let you go
It wasn't like I wanted to
You pushed too far away from me
Talkings just like pulling teeth
Luckily they're rotten now
And easier to pull from your mouth
Question who you wanna be
And catch you falling back to me

Where time goes
Heaven only knows

I found myself in California
Smoking cigs on the beach with my friends
With a 40oz in one hand
Saying "Man, it's good to be back again."
And I thought that I'd find heaven
Man I could only find hell
Maybe one day I'll be happy
I guess only time will tell
I guess only time will tell

And sorry that I let you go
It wasn't like I wanted to
You pushed too far away from me
And talking just like pulling teeth
But luckily they're rotten now
And easier to pull from your mouth
Question who you wanna be
And catch you falling back to me

Where time goes
Heaven only knows

I found myself in California
Smoking cigs on the beach with my friends
With a 40oz in one hand
Saying "Man, it's good to be back again."
And I thought that I'd find heaven
Man I could only find hell
Maybe one day I'll be happy
I guess only time will tell
I guess only time will tell

And I thought that I'd find heaven
Man, I could only find hell
Hoping one day I'll be happy
Guess only time will tell
