

Begging For Bones

Have Mercy

Is there a place we can go
Cause I miss the times we spent alone
Just had to get this off my chest
You're the only one who knew me the best

18 and begging for bones
I said to carry me back home
From the distance I heard, "Hey!"
I wanna be the one that takes you away
I wanna be the one that takes you away

I felt the drugs, they were kicking in
I felt your legs and they wrapped me in
Oh please don't let me go
Don't ever let me go
I never thought I could be so alone, so alone

Back in the summer 04
Stole your parents brews and passed out on the floor
Moved to the sound of the beating door
You said "what are you laughing for?"
Well I found it kind of funny had to ask your dad for money
To get a cab back to my place
Called me when I got home
Told me you just needed space

I felt the drugs, they were kicking in
I felt your legs as they wrapped me in
Oh please don't let me go

Don't ever let me go
I never thought I could be so alone, so alone
I saw the room as it started to spin
I felt my blood and it was running thin
Oh please don't let me go
Don't ever let me go
I never thought I could be so alone, so alone

The only thing I've ever known
I remembered every awful show about young love
And you never got enough of me
And it's clear to see
It's the only thing I've ever known
18 and begging for bones

I felt the drugs, they were kicking in
I felt your legs as they wrapped me in
Oh please don't let me go
Don't ever let me go
I never thought I could be so alone, so alone
I saw the room as it started to spin
I felt my blood and it was running thin
Oh please don't let me go
Don't ever let me go
I never thought I could be so alone, so alone

Is there a place we can go

Cause I miss the times we spent alone
