

Haunted House

Have Mercy

Watching the dead rise from their graves,hear their cries
The raging wall of fire,see it light the burning sky
They'll take you to their house of hell,they'll grind your brain
Meet the ghost of evil,he will put you in your grave

Oh no! You can not escape this place
It will drive you mad
It'll tear your mind to pieces
Beware of the haunted house

Spirits walking through the hallways,they rattle their chains
They lie & tempt you,they'll rip out your heart,you'll die in vain
Once familiar faces are now cadavers of the night
Enter the house death dwells in,mortify the light of life
