

Holy Dismissal

Have Mercy

Sitting at the right hand, blessed by the holy one Eternal ride, promise him the kingdom of sun
For his lust to hold the sacred throne, betrayal a desperate plan
An evil plight to control the light it shines upon the holy land

Gather his legions, prepare to fight or fall Heading to battle determined to conquer all

Soldiers of misfortune, fight or fall they fail Tortured minds stained with sin to the cross their souls were nailed Pass into the darkened gates to rule the evil domain Pass below to burn & rust engulfed in eternal flames

Choice you own, now you have fallen to a place unknown to all Your power has grown no praises by God the sinners await your call Unholy prayers spoken at madness they stalk us again & again
It's better for evil to rule in hell then serve in heaven
