

Just Fine

Have Mercy

Thought I have a better plan
Swore I'd be a better man, but I can't Everything in me you see
So what do you want from me?

Know I'm getting older now
Most the time I'm freaking out and in doubt
Laying right next to me
Is where you need to be

So say goodbye, like it is the last time
Say you're peace turning your back to me
Know I'll be your baby if you need me to be
Don't cry, I'll be just fine

Lookin' to be reassured
Everything you've ever felt, you've heard
Will somehow be justified
You don't need to cry

Just say goodbye, it is the last time
Speak you're peace turning your back to me
Just know I'll be your baby if you need me to be
Don't cry, I'll be just fine
Don't cry, I'll be just fine
