

Mass Destruction

Have Mercy

The earth is doomed by the evil that stalks human kind Beware of the light it sends out to take your mind
In his eyes,I can see the destruction he wants to fulfill You can run,you can try to hide,you're the victim the one to be killed

No one can stop this evil force,it's strength can never be Killing & spilling the blood of the damned
It's power will never decrease
Mass Destruction

Attack spreads holocaust,destroying all who will fall Escape is impossible,his wrath begins to unfold Blinded by darkness,his victims they fall one by one Enraged with vengeance destroying until there is none

In this night,this darkened night,you'll see his throne starts to fall
The war is on & we must fight & win & give peace to all

We were warned,we were told of this time that will soon draw near
But we sinned,now we must pay,our dreams have all disappeared
We burn & dismiss,the pain it will never be We pray to almighty God,can you help us please
