

Vendetta

Have Mercy

You have betrayed me for the very last time
Now you must pay, for all the times that you cheated & lied
You stabbed my back, a twist of fate shall send you the blade
My foolish friend, deception of glory a tragic end

Two walks of life, good & evil the ways
You've chose the wrong, you can not be saved

I call the shots, pull the punches, I shall win
You will lose in the end, you will get what is coming
You're a fool, now you must pay
Revenge must be sweet, now it's your day

Lied, cheated, stolen, deceived me
The last laughs mine you will see
Someone that I called friend
A victim of revenge
