

We Ain't Got Love

Have Mercy

You ain't got enough
To keep me around
I got something to say
And I need you to hear it right now
If I'm drowning out
It could be your wit
But I bet it's the spike in my drink
That has something to do with it

No, we ain't got love
No, we never did
We ain't got love
No, we never did
We ain't got love
No, we never did
We ain't got love
We ain't got love

You ain't got enough
To keep me at ease
And I know the words that you blurb
When I'm not in your company
And I've hit the end
Of this bottle of wine
I'm learning to cope
So I drink and I smoke till I'm fine
I'm not fine

No, we ain't got love
No, we never did
We ain't got love
No, we never did
We ain't got love
No, we never did
We ain't got love
We ain't got love

You're an addict
You're a savior
You're a lost cause
Bad behavior
Your new boyfriend
He's a failure
Just like me
Break him off a little piece for me

You're an addict
You're a savior
You're a lost cause
Bad behavior
Your new boyfriend
He's a failure
Just like me
Break him off a little piece for me

You're an addict
You're a savior

You're a lost cause
Bad behavior
Your new boyfriend
He's a failure
Just like me

You're an addict
You're a savior
You're a lost cause
Bad behavior
Your new boyfriend
Just like me
Break him off a little piece for me
