

Sweet Obsession

Hawkwind

I'm standing at the station waiting just to see your face
I'm looking in shop windows whilst trying to retrace
I received your letter, though the information's clear
I want to keep the feeling going, not let it disappear
All the time we've spent together, memories of the past
The future holds the key forever, let's make the future last

Your confession
My sweet obsession
