

I always panic 'cause I never have enough
I wanna be more like the people that I love
What's wrong with me? A lot of things
For one, I never look up
When I get happy it's a moment running fast
'Cause I've convinced myself that good things never last
Today's the day I'm not passing through
I'm gonna say "Wait, have you seen the view?"

Honestly, I couldn't see
An angel standing by
But they were holding me patiently
Waiting for me to arrive

I'm done with fires just to prove that I've been cursed
I'm done confusing all these ashes with my worth
Today's the day I'm not passing through
I'm gonna say "Wait, have you seen the view?"

Wait, have you seen the view?

Can't get any bigger
Panorama
Wait, have you seen the view?

Feeling better, maybe forever?
A big wide open space to try
I don't have to be on the top to see
