

sugar at the bottom

Hayley Kiyoko

When you get jealous does he call you out like I did?
Or does he always let you win?
When you get bitter, making excuses, throwing fit
Is he a silent optimist?

We used to be like
You'd hit me up, and I'd call
Rev it up, and you'd stall
Can't believe it, can't believe, I believed in you (Ah, ah)

I stayed with you even through the drama
Thinking I'd find sugar at the bottom
I'm so glad you're someone else's problem
Thinking he'll find sugar at the bottom
If I could give him some advice
Just stay away, she's fucking crazy

Ain't no sugar at the bottom
Bottom, bottom, bottom, bottom

Are you still pushing everyone away at arm's length?
You pulled them close but never stay
You think you're sweeter than the grenadine in my drink
But I know really how you taste

We used to be like
You'd hit me up, and I'd call
Rev it up, and you'd stall
Can't believe it, can't believe, I believed in you (Ah, ah)

I stayed with you even through the drama
Thinking I'd find sugar at the bottom
I'm so glad you're someone else's problem
Thinking he'll find sugar at the bottom
If I could give him some advice
Just stay away, she's fucking crazy

Ain't no sugar at the bottom
(I stayed with you even through the drama thinking I'd find sugar at the bottom)
Ain't no sugar at the bottom
(I'm so glad you're someone else's problem, thinking he'll find sugar at the bottom)

3 AM, you got me saying sorry
For some shit I never even started
I'm so glad you're someone else's problem

I stayed with you even through the drama thinking I'd find sugar at the bottom

I'm so glad you're someone else's problem, thinking he'll find sugar at the bottom

If I could give him some advice

Just stay away, she's fucking crazy

(I stayed with you even through the drama thinking I'd find sugar at the bottom)

Ain't no sugar at the bottom

(I'm so glad you're someone else's problem, thinking he'll find sugar at the bottom)
