

underground

Hayley Kiyoko

There's something about it, it's hard enough to wake up
Can't talk about it, I'm hiding from everyone
I go around it, avoiding conversation
There's something about it, can't talk about it

'Cause I'm screaming, I'm sinking in my mind
Searching for rainbows in the sky
Maybe I'm wasting all my time

Why does every day make me feel some type of way?
Like I'm underground
Drowning in the space, can you see it on my face?
'Cause I need you now ('Cause I)

Is there anybody else?
Is there anybody, anybody, anybody out there?
Is there anybody else?
Is there anybody, anybody, anybody out there?
Why does every day make me feel some type of way?
Like I'm underground

There's something about it, I'm buried under too much
Can't talk about it, I just can't take the weight off (Wei-eight)
It's just too heavy to carry, I'm reaching
Am I too late, way too far in the deep end?

'Cause I'm screaming, I'm sinking in my mind
Searching for rainbows in the sky
Maybe I'm wasting all my time

Why does every day make me feel some type of way?
Like I'm underground
Drowning in the space, can you see it on my face?
'Cause I need you now ('Cause I)

Is there anybody else?
Is there anybody, anybody, anybody out there?
Is there anybody else?
Is there anybody, anybody, anybody out there?
Is there anybody else?
Is there anybody, anybody, anybody out there?
Is there anybody else?
Is there anybody, anybody, anybody out there?

Ah, ah
Hey, hey
Ah, ah
Is there anybody else?

There's something about it, it's hard enough to wake up
Can't talk about it, I'm hiding from everyone
I go around it, avoiding conversation
There's something about it, can't talk about it

'Cause I'm screaming, I'm sinking in my mind
Searching for rainbows in the sky
Maybe I'm wasting all my time

Why does every day make me feel some type of way?
Like I'm underground
Drowning in the space, can you see it on my face?
'Cause I need you now (I need you now)
