

well...

Hayley Kiyoko

Knew I'd see you here, I guess you still look great
It's been a couple years since I let you break me open
Once I dried my tears, I got my life up great Put my shit in gear, it's so nice to not be coping

Threw my hands in the end to the music
Feeling myself again
I never thought I'd forget what you did
But here you are and here I am

I know I'm doing well, as far as I can tell I'm doing better than, better than you
I'm looking hot as hell, I found someone to love me like you never could, never could do
I got what I wanted, uh-uh-uh
And girl, I'm gonna flaunt it, uh-uh-uh
I know I'm doing well and everyone can tell I'm doing better than you

So thank you for putting me through hell, hell, hell
For putting me through hell, hell, hell
For putting me through hell, hell, hell
Yeah, everyone can tell I'm doing fucking well

You ask me how's my mom as if you even care
You say it's been too long, God forbid you pay attention
Hear me, one long pause, your famous step and stare
I gotta bite my tongue and dance away to cut the tension

Threw my hands in the end to the music
Feeling myself again
I never thought I'd forget what you did
But here you are and here I am

I know I'm doing well, as far as I can tell I'm doing better than, better than you
I'm looking hot as hell, I found someone to love me like you never could, would never could do
I got what I wanted (I got what I wanted), uh-uh-uh
And girl, I'm gonna flaunt it (I'm gonna flaunt it), uh-uh-uh
I know I'm doing well (I'm doing well) and everyone can tell I'm doing better than you

So thank you for putting me through hell, hell, hell
For putting me through hell, hell, hell
For putting me through hell, hell, hell
Yeah, everyone can tell I'm doing fucking well

I'm well, oh, yeah, I'm doing (I'm doing well)
So well, oh, yeah, I'm doing (Doing well)
I'm well, oh, yeah, I'm doing
And everyone can tell I'm doing fucking, shut up
