

The Primarily Blue's

He Is Legend

So, Now if I could just stand out
Underneath your weather
Nevermind the hole that's in my shoe
And just keep raining
You make it all feel better
Soaked to the bone in you
Here's to your bones

Don't know why so dry in my hands
(In my head)
That is so you
Don't know why so primary red
I'm primarily blue

It's so dark here
And heavier than ever
Just sit still and stand cool
Damn the eye
The ever drifting feather
Damn the mind
The useless tool

Don't know why so dry in my hands
(In my head)
That is so you
Don't know why so primary red
I'm primarily blue

Please tell me why
(Where are you?)
You've been hiding

Everyone is standing by
(Where are you?)
Awaiting your reply

I don't know exactly why I'm hiding
I don't know exactly why I'm hiding
