

The Seduction

He Is Legend

Where did she go I do not know
And which direction was it snowing?
I'll turn around again
Paint over pictures of the world
I can't believe she gave me alcohol
I thought of Jessebell

I hung from a wrecking ball to see a fashion show
I think you know me well

Juliet! You know you want it!

I've been receiving strange phone calls from the city
I will not extend my hand to the general
And I do not think the people will remember us

I hung from a wrecking ball to view a fashion show
I think you know me well

I've been jumping over buildings
I've been sleeping in the street
"Mr. Jones" will be right with you, everyone just have a seat
Well I'll meet you at the river where we both can clear our heads
I think we would look great dead

I've got to find, to find the princess, she's in another castle and dancing with the Capulets
We're so "crazy in love"

Juliet! You know you want it!
