

The Wolf

Heart

You were born to privilege
Lickin' on a silver spoon
You think you gotta buy all your friends
Just so you can tear up the room

But you're kind, is a dime a dozen?
I've seen it all before
A parasite in a good disguise
Just another wolf at the door

The wolf
Prowlin' in the nighttime
The wolf
Howlin' in the moonshine
The wolf
Gives you what you want
But he ain't no friend of mine

You lay it on so sweet
Just like that bad cologne
You just smilin' tooth and nail
You gotta make your presence known

But you are only a lonely hunter
Some things you can't disguise
Just to look in the hallway mirror
Now it's howlin' in your eyes

The wolf
Prowlin' in the nighttime
The wolf
Howlin' in the moonshine
The wolf
Gives you what you want
But he ain't no friend of mine

Silent, slick and stealthy
Slinkin' through your evil nights
You can see in the dark they tell me
The daylight burns your eyes

I know you're tryin' to track me down now
You're right on my trail
You're thinkin' you're goin' for the big big game
But you're just chasin' your own tail

The wolf
Prowlin' in the nighttime
The wolf
Howlin' in the moonshine
The wolf
Gives you what you want
But he ain't no friend of mine
