

Revolution

Heartless Bastards

Where you going, my friend
Have you forgotten when
There was a time filled with hope instead of fear that's in your heart
There was a time when life was simple and innocent to start
Do you remember, do you remember

Where you going, my friend
Have you forgotten when
There was a time when false information wasn't so rampant in the sphere
A time when you weren't questioning everything you hear
Do you remember, do you remember

Constantly being advertised a life commercialized and disguised
As happiness in pills and potions fancy threads and cars in motion
Hypnotized by gilded lies to line the pockets of so few
While hungry politicians feed bullshit to the masses
To ensure their statuses and further divide the classes

You were born with a voice so open up and speak your mind
Raise consciousness and elevate how we all relate don't hesitate
No need to be better or smarter than anybody else
Leave judgement at the door for others and yourself

The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind

Big Brothers watching you and trying to sell you something new
And I just want to take away take away the blues
Big brother is watching you and trying to sell you something new
And I just want to take away take away the blues

The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind

Revolution
Revolution
Revolution
Revolution

When I get up, I get up in the morning
All I really want is the truth
When I open my eyes and I get up in the morning
All I really need is the truth

You were born with a voice so open up and speak your mind
Raise consciousness and elevate how we all relate don't hesitate
No need to be better or smarter than anybody else
Leave judgement at the door for others and yourself

The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind

When I get up, I get up in the morning
All I really want is the truth
When I open my eyes and I get up in the morning
All I really need is the truth

Revolution
Revolution
Revolution
Revolution

The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
The revolution is in your mind
