

Worlds Apart

Heights

I've seen this road many times before
The air heavy with the silence
Once welcome now changed in perception
Back in the clear light of day
I hope that you burn inside
Flames of guilt engulf you
This is what you wanted
Now you and I are worlds apart
So I can tell you how it feels
When the world crushes your chest
It leaves you breathless
It leaves you all alone
You must place not your hope in false idols
My strength comes from within
A place that cannot be broken
This is all that I need
Burn in hell for all I care
This is what you wanted now we're worlds apart
