

Bury You

Hellyeah

Fuck you and your leash, barbed wire keeps me
Bound and incomplete, I'm bleeding
Wolves dressed up like sheep, they surround me
My anxiety, arresting

Deliver me to war, exterminate and bury you
Sacrilegious mourn, hand to God I'll bury you
Malevolence reborn, purge the herd and bury you
I'm done living I've become alive

Live it, like you own it
Gotta drive it, like you stole it
Gonna take it, 'cause you owe it
And I'll bury you alive
I'll bury you alive
(Bury you)

The secrets that you leak, so nauseating
The trauma you caused me, I'm seething
You sell me out so cheap, all smoke and mirrors
A ghost in your machine, that's tilted

Hostile to the core, terrorize and bury you
Settling the score, swear to God I'll bury you
Malignant ever more, light the fire and bury you
Dominate your life and come alive

Live it, like you own it
Gotta drive it, like you stole it
Gonna take it, 'cause you owe it
And I'll bury you alive
I'll bury you alive

I'm just a spoke on the wheel, a link in the chain
A cog in the machine, tried to throw me away
Nothing is sacred and that nothing is me
Took everything that was beautiful
And used it to pummel me!

Live it, like you own it
Gotta drive it, like you stole it
Gonna take it, 'cause you owe it
And I'll bury you alive
I'll bury you alive

(Bury you)
