

Skyy and Water

Hellyeah

The sun isn't quite as bright today
And it hasn't been for a while, I'd say
Everything has a little duller hue
The smiles aren't as wide today
They're upside down or have been erased
Everything seems empty without you

Choking back my tears again today
I can hear your voice, I can hear you say
Don't sweat the small stuff
And just keep on keeping on

Where the skyy meets the water
I see you
Where the skyy meets the water

Where the skyy meets the water
I'll see you
Where the skyy meets the water

The birds all stopped singing today
The winds blowing hard and the clouds won't break
I can't find any shelter from the rain
I know you're never far away
I can hear your laugh and see your face
Will you carry us and help to ease the pain?

Choking back my tears again today
I can hear your voice, I can hear you say
Don't sweat the small stuff
And just keep on keeping on

Where the skyy meets the water
I see you
Where the skyy meets the water

Where the skyy meets the water
I'll see you
Where the skyy
Where the skyy meets the water
Meets the water
