

Stare At Yourself

Hibria

Broken down and oppressed by the secrets
A prisoner of yourself
Secrets hidden in an enigmatic temple
A pain that you never release

In a moment a fusion of emotions
Can make you stronger than fear
Letting you say what's on your mind

Stare at yourself
The power can be found
Make a wish
Straight to the skyline
Make your dreams come true
The best bet is yourself

Living in sorrow
I never know if
What I'm saying, is what I believe in
Ain't I fighting
For ideas
I don't believe in?

Living in sorrow
I never know if
What I'm saying is a truth I can believe in
Ain't I fighting
For ideas
I don't believe in?

I have the need to know what is wrong
Have I been judging what they have been thought?
Come together, let's change it all

Feeling stronger to throw away
The secrets hidden in my world of pain
Feeling stronger to throw away
The world of ideas they put me in

Can't we live in together?
As we think it's right?
I don't want to hurt your freedom
- I will live free -
So don't try to hurt mine
- On and on -
I don't want to change your world
So don't try to change mine
Why I have to follow your path
- I will live free -
If having my own way
Is nice to me
- I will live free -
Stare at yourself, stare at yourself
Stare at yourself, and find yourself
