

Boxing

High Highs

The feeling's strong I held you like I never did to let it hold you away
So I begin to open up the night again to let it pull me away Above it all
I sense that we could be alone

I never hurt no one
I feel it in my bones

Openness
in the warmest colors
I let it pull me in
On the bay pictures are forever but I fear it's all there is Found a scene
one that you won't believe

I never hurt no one
I feel it in my bones
