

Working the Mic

Hilltop Hoods

Since back in the days, we been the major crew,
Hilltop Hoods working the mike,
Hilltop Hoods Working the mike,
(2x)

Who's fucking with me, Suffa MC,
Tongue like sandpaper, who's rougher than we?
We been gone for a while it's been a long cold winter,
We back to get this crowd off their feet like back injuries,
Raps flaks and similies, acts to hack into me
They try bring me down like a Mac had backed into me
Back your car into me, fact you can't injure me
We back to crack the back of this whacked rap industry
These MC's dont wanna, (they don't wanna) mess with me
Fuck that bitch run his mouth its just a
Storm in a teacup
You whacked as Aussie troops goin to Afganistan
I'm in the world war with Mohammed my man
I'm takin MC's to war fuck the friendships and politics
End this because my lyrical depth is bottomless
We thought you'd forgotten us
Theres no forgetting me
You wanna fight
You couldnt win a battle hypothetically

Since back in the days, we been the major crew,
Hilltop Hoods working the mike,
Hilltop Hoods Working the mike,
(2x)

Ive had enough of their dissings,
And fucking ambition,
Theres nothing but wishing,
To become all phat when they're undernourished
Hey there no loving your listen,
You getting bumped in my system,
Your chance is hardly as much as an Iraqi becoming a Christian
You'll never shine, you cant polish a turd,
Your shit is dope but shove it down your throat to swallow your words
Im sick of copping slander for what I stand for,
You're not the man you're just masturbating in your propaganda
And got a lot to answer, your shit dont stink,
Think you're ship wont sink, mandate it don't think;
That you're large and we're small time, to rob easy small minds,
Carrying the heavy weight of their ego on small spines
This is rugged raw the heads'd want nothing more,
But others talk politics and swallow dicks like a fucking whore
So what're they bugging for?
Its just hiphop, love and war
Pressure MC, Hilltop Hoods,
The lyric Juggernaught

Since back in the days, we been the major crew,
Hilltop Hoods working the mike,
Hilltop Hoods Working the mike,
(2x)
