

All Lips Go Blue

HIM

Hear the silent song
A moment have come before this.
My heart, so violently beats along.
Bleeding me to want to end it all.

I weep for the dream in a dream.
The one that made all lips go blue.

I read the words on torn down walls
Reminding me how much I love you.

I weep for the dream in a dream.
The one that made all lips go blue.
I leave bleeding yet another day.
The one that made all lips go blue.
It's all for you.
It's all for you.

Weep for the dream in a dream.
The one that made all lips go blue.
I leave bleeding yet another day.
The one that made all lips go blue.
It's all for you.
It's all for you.
It's all for you.
