

Pain

Hollywood Undead

(Now I can see your pain, I'm sorry
Goodbye!
I cry so hard
Now I can see your pain, I'm sorry
Goodbye!
I cry tonight)

The necks of this youth
With their necks through this noose
We're told lies like its truth
And we suspect that it's you
So you strap them with the AK
It's mother fucking may day
They swear I'm fucking crazy
Ain't nothing gonna save me
I'm breaking I feel it
I'm naked I'm kneeling
I'm shaking I'm reeling
My god I keep bleeding
I watch the world die through crimson eyes
I cry it turns to night
I die I see the light
And now I'll say goodbye

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
Goodbye
I cry so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
Goodbye
I cry tonight

If I could take all this pain away
Use the rage of our youth today
Whose to say that it's you to blame
It's the people above you
The ones who say that they love you
Look what the world has come to
So now it's time to say 'Fuck You!'
If you care then they drug you
And no one's there when they numb you
Fill you with terror and crush you
Pretend they care as they shove you
So you look to me to find the truth
And what I say is what you do
But everyone you look up to
Is really as fucked up as you
Time is getting shorter
With these enforced disorders
And we get blamed and pushed around
So who's the fucking villain now?

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
Goodbye
I cry so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
Goodbye

We can't stop now
We're so close now
'Cause these times are almost over
I won't give up
So god save us
It feels like were getting closer
I won't give up
So god save us

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
Goodbye
I cry so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry
Goodbye
I cry tonight
Goodbye
I cry tonight
I'll cry tonight
