(Now I can see your pain, I'm sorry
Goodbye!
I cry so hard
Now I can see your pain, I'm sorry
Goodbye!
I cry tonight)

The necks of this youth With their necks through this noose We're told lies like its truth And we suspect that it's you So you strap them with the AK It's mother fucking may day They swear I'm fucking crazy Ain't nothing gonna save me I'm breaking I feel it I'm naked I'm kneeling I'm shaking I'm reeling My god I keep bleeding I watch the world die through crimson eyes I cry it turns to night I die I see the light And now I'll say goodbye

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry Goodbye I cry so hard Now I can see your pain I'm sorry Goodbye I cry tonight

If I could take all this pain away Use the rage of our youth today Whose to say that it's you to blame It's the people above you The ones who say that they love you Look what the world has come to So now it's time to say 'Fuck You!' If you care then they drug you And no one's there when they numb you Fill you with terror and crush you Pretend they care as they shove you So you look to me to find the truth And what I say is what you do But everyone you look up to Is really as fucked up as you Time is getting shorter With these enforced disorders And we get blamed and pushed around So who's the fucking villain now?

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry Goodbye I cry so hard Now I can see your pain I'm sorry Goodbye I cry tonight We can't stop now
We're so close now
'Cause these times are almost over
I won't give up
So god save us
It feels like were getting closer
We can't stop now
We're so close now
'Cause these times are almost over
I won't give up
So god save us

Now I can see your pain I'm sorry Goodbye
I cry so hard
Now I can see your pain I'm sorry Goodbye
I cry tonight
Goodbye
I cry tonight
I'll cry tonight
I cry tonight
I cry tonight
