

Hellhound

Holy Moses

I take you on a journey through nightmares to hell you find yourself in wood obscure piercing, dark and sharp it haunts you still renewing your pitiful dismay this death so near i'll feed you with bitter taste decay

run
stumble upon rotten bodies scream
a swarm of flies pours out your mouth

I am the hound of hell
guarding the gates
dismembering the lost
lacerate the abandoned
torture the vain

I make you bleed a thousand times a thousand painful wounds you find yourself in bones obscure broken splattered crushed

I haunt you till your lungs explode my fangs rip out raw flesh my claws cut deep into your bones the journey is your end

torture the vain
