

Into the Dark

Holy Moses

watching - the disappearing soil desperate - flapping my wings scared of everything that happens next slashing around helplessly - falling into unknown depths fear - take me now and drags me down stripped - naked and all that's left - despair and hate watching - quicksand grabbing me desperate - clinging on the ground

slashing 'round helplessly - I'm sinking into unknown depths you think you are safe - you are not - we are all drawn - into the dark feeling - shadows overtaking me staring - at penetrating eyes petrified with horror - unable to move slashing 'round helplessly - i'm losing my sanity

stripped - naked and all that's left - despair and hate feeling - my drained and worn out mind - staring - into my abyss

slashing around helplessly - I'm drowning in insanity always be there back in your mind hidden in the veils of self-deception

I'll make you sleepless - I'll make you sad you can't ignore the only way to exit is your death I'll make you restless - I'll make you mad all greatness perishes - the only exit is your death the only exit is your death
