

Redemption of the Shattered

Holy Moses

digging deep into the ground damp earth soaked with blood scattered limbs torn off with force pungeni stench of burning flesh giving birth to my demons the funeral of my emotions my empty eyes are turning cold my body - an abandoned chapel the only way to exist in this world letting my perturbation rot I'm watching myself with a soulless smile I bury my slain rejected self

redemption of confusion
