

Fight For Me

Holychild

If I met you on the way back,
Coming from a space craft,
Would you tell me that you think I'm pretty?
If we met when we were in high school,
Would your nerves reveal you,
Sweaty palms that hold me on our prom night?

Oh, I believe
My destiny leads me back to you
In every lifetime

Why didn't you fight for me?
How could you just let me leave?
I'd been waiting all my life to find you
Why didn't you fight for me?
How could you just let me leave?
Now I have to die again to find you

If we were living in the 80s,
Feathered hair and lazy,
Would your metal band write songs about me?
What if we were both much older,
Life had turned you colder,
Would my voice melt all your cynicism?

Oh, I believe
My destiny leads me back to you
In every lifetime

Why didn't you fight for me?
How could you just let me leave?
I'd been waiting all my life to find you
Why didn't you fight for me?
How could you just let me leave?
Now I have to die again to find you

[Liz:] Hi, moon?
[Louie:] Hi, sun.
[Liz:] Does it really have to be over?
[Louie:] If we had it once, it won't ever go away.

Now the sun is setting down
The moon'll come around
The palest light, I know it shines on you
At least we have the stars
No matter where we are
'Cause somewhere out there you and I are true

Why didn't you fight for me?
How could you just let me leave?
I'd been waiting all my life to find you
Why didn't you fight for me?
How could you just let me leave?
Now I have to die again to find you
