

Regret You

Holychild

Won't you let me know you when the days are all gone?

It's like I never knew
That love was made by two
I scare myself by lusting for the harder dreamers

And after finding you
I see that now it's true
It's never what I'm told but how I chose to make it

Won't you let me know you when the days are all gone?
Sleeping on your shoulder while you're driving your car, yeah
Boy we ride forever when you're flying with me
Yeah I'll always let you know
Won't regret you when I go

You're sweetest when you see
This world is choking me
I always hold my breathe and hope it will be over

Your hands upon my neck
This beauty and reflex
Let's transcend all the worst and find it while we're running

Won't you let me know you when the days are all gone?
Sleeping on your shoulder while you're driving your car, yeah
Boy we ride forever when you're flying with me
Yeah I'll always let you know
Won't regret you when I go

My heart breaks
For all the wasted time
The fire's just beginning
We're farther

There's nothing left but lust
We're primal no denying
Would you say that we are all believers
Of some deeper truth? Religion might redeem us and oh

I'll hold you
Until the night is done
Until the party's swaying

Won't you let me know you when the days are all gone?
Sleeping on your shoulder while you're driving your car, yeah
Boy we ride forever when you're flying with me
Yeah I'll always let you know
Won't regret you when I go
