

A Thousand Words

Hoobastank

It's hard to say goodbye
And leave a part of me
These walls will hold so many memories
Underneath my smile
Holding back a scream
Packing up a box of broken dreams

A thousand words
Trapped inside of me
A thousand words
A thousand words

In the rear view mirror
I slowly disappear
All this road the dust they never clear
I wish I had a choice
I wish that I could stay
I wish I had a voice so I could say

A thousand words
Trapped inside of me
A thousand words
A thousand words

A thousand words
Trapped inside of me
A thousand words
A thousand words

A thousand words
Trapped inside of me
A thousand words
A thousand words

A thousand words
Trapped inside of me
A thousand words
A thousand words
