

Down

Hotel Lights

just leave it alone
nothing changes
when i was yours
when we were strangers in the headlines painted in the corner back to where you know, feeling ok looking for your feet no one to blame outside my building, the deal is breaking, breaking what goes down goes down what goes down

now it's give and take what's yours is yours from a lullaby, on nightmare street perfectly alone, not totally screwed came like the first words let them be amused
can't you tell yet i don't believe you

what goes down goes down, down trouble in mind, secret for a friend you know how to be tongue tied til the things you said make sense again you know i just don't see it happening for you

into a split second out in the empty street like slanted rain

and what goes down goes down
down
