

$5 Bucks of Gasoline

House of Lords

Oh, yeah yeah
Look out

Hey Mister, maybe you could help me out
I made a mistake and I can't fix it (fix it now)
I'll take the blame, yeah it was my fault, no doubt
She gave me a chance but still I missed it (missed it now)

Feels like I'm losing you with every breath I breathe
There's no illusion, oh Mister all I really need is

5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby
5 bucks of gasoline
To take me back where I went wrong
5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby
5 bucks of gasoline
Gotta try and change her mind
Before she's gone

Oh tell me why when things get real I go numb
When everything's right I'm bound to break (break it, yeah)
I should've known someday that girl would become Inside of my dreams till I can't take it (take it now)

Feels like I'm drowning in an ocean of mistakes
I hear her calling, so Mister it might only take

5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby
5 bucks of gasoline
To take me back where I went wrong
5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby
5 bucks of gasoline
Gotta try and change her mind
Before she's gone

Oh Mister please
I'm on my knees
I don't wanna spend one minute
A minute without her in it, in it

I lost my way
I've had to pay
For every single word unspoken
For every single piece I've broken

But I won't let that happen
Never ever again, no

Feels like I'm losing you with every breath I breathe
There's no illusion, oh Mister all I really need is

5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby

5 bucks of gasoline
To take me back where I went wrong
5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby
5 bucks of gasoline
Gotta try and change her mind
Before she's gone

5 bucks of gasoline
To get me back to that beautiful baby
5 bucks of gasoline
To take me back where I went wrong
