

Call My Bluff

House of Lords

As little as I know
This alone I know for sure
I'd die where you go.oh

Before, I wouldn't grow
I wouldn't risk, I'd just endure
Waiting for that final blow.oh

So if I tell you hit the road, goodbye
Remember baby, it'll be a lie

If I ever say I'm not in love
Call me on it, call my bluff
Though I'm sure I'm gonna make it through
Call me on it, call my bluff

The stranger in my shoes
That I'm trying to turn into
Exists because of you.ooh ooh

Nobody could refuse
A chance to see what he would do
With a heart as brave as new.ooh ooh

So if I tell you hit the road, goodbye
Remember baby, it'll be a lie

If I ever say I'm not in love
Call me on it, call my bluff
Though I'm sure I'm gonna make it through
Call me on it, call my bluff

If I ever say I'm not in love
Call me on it, call my bluff
Though I'm sure I'm gonna make it through
Call me on it, call my bluff

If I ever say I'm not in love
Call me on it, call my bluff
Though I'm sure I'm gonna make it through
Call me on it, call my bluff

If I ever say I'm not in love
Call me on it, call my bluff
Though I'm sure I'm gonna make it through
Call me on it, call my bluff

If I ever say you're not enough
Call me on it, call my bluff
If I double down or I blow up
Call me on it, call my bluff
