Face Again

How to Dress Well

Girl, in daylight they don't have to hide truth
And you knew this before I had told you
And when they pass by, they don't ask for nothing
You say your skin breaks like glass when they touch it
Oh there's nowhere he, there's nowhere he, there's nowhere

We weren't meant to hunger in the night
We weren't made to wonder about what is right
Put the hand in your mouth they hate you when you bite
I look into the future and see just so little light

Look into my face again and tell me what you wanna see
I don't think you know what's best for me
No, I don't think you know what's best for me
Just kiss me on my face again and tell me what love's supposed to be
No, I don't think you know what's best for me
No, I don't even know what's best for me

Yeah your pain babe ain't got shit to buy you
And so if they could, they'd leave us out to die too
And when they pass by, they don't ask for nothing
And we own brittle bones, we weren't meant to fly boo
Oh there's nowhere he, there's nowhere he, there's nowhere

We weren't meant to hunger in the night
We weren't made to wonder about what is right
Put the hand in your mouth, they hate you when you bite
I look into the future and see just so little light

You know I want an answer, but I forgot the question
You know I wanna change change change, whoa whoa
You know here comes the cancer, it's supposed to be a blessing
You know it's not a change change change, whoa whoa
When life's not in the balance, it's bleaker know the feeling
Gotta change change change, whoa whoa
I know I want an answer, I forgot the question
I know I wanna change change change, whoa whoa
Whoa whoa, whoa whoa, whoa whoa

Look me in my face again and tell me what I oughta be
I really think you know what's best for me
Yeah, I know you know what's best for me
Just take me in your arms and tell me in the future we'll be home and free
Cause I don't even know what's best for me
Yeah, I don't even know what's best for me
