

Care

Hudson Taylor

You're not undercover,
You're just connected to the shame,
Of your secret lover,
It never works out in the end.

If it keeps on going,
You might lose your only friend.
It's all connected baby,
It's all connected to our brains,

Think a little harder,
When your feeling all alone.

For heaven's sake I have been screaming at you all the time.
It makes no sense how he treats you,
How could you miss the signs.
He's been cheating on you,
Messin' with your head.
I only say it cause I care.

Maybe I dream about you,
Maybe I'm too afraid to say,
I think about you every second of the day.

He's a hypocrite
And he should be locked up in a cage.
Its all connected baby,
Its all connected to out brains.

Think a little harder,
When your feeling all alone.

For heaven's sake I have been screaming at you all the time.
It makes no sense how he treats you,
How could you miss the signs.
He's been cheating on you,
Messin' with your head.
I only say it cause I care,
Say it cause I care.

(I only say it cause I care)

For heaven's sake I have been screaming at you all the time.
It makes no sense how he treats you,
How could you miss the signs.
He's been cheating on you,
Messin' with your head.
I only say it cause I care.

For heaven's sake I have been screaming at you all the time.
It makes no sense how he treats you,
How could you miss the signs.
He's been cheating on you,
Messin' with your head.
I only say it cause I care,
Say it cause i care.
