80 MPH

Hundred Reasons

Please lift the weight off us destroy and leave it all behind p our your hands and make believe so we could plot the course Divine make your matchstick and man so proud yet all I felt was less you overcompensate you always hesitate you open up You're cased in silence