

What Are You Waiting For?

Hunters & Collectors

You got what you need
You need what you take
You think of all the love
And all the money you make

One, two maybe three times more
Around again to the nail on your door
The door is open
Can't you see

You're too brutish
You look like me
Kiss you on the mouth
Behind your back

Do the dirty on you
Backdoor attack
Look at ya!
You're dreaming again

You're running out of reasons
You're running out of time
Ya got a good thing going
So what are you waiting, what are you waiting for?

The door was open
Can't you see
The dealer with the dagger baby looks like me
Nothing changes
You're dreaming again
Something must be broken
'Cos the butcher's broken in

You got what you need
You need what you take
You think of all the love
And all the money you make

One, two maybe three times more
Around again to the nail on your door
The door is open
Can't you see

The dealer with the dagger baby looks like me
Kiss you on the mouth
Behind your back
Do the dirty on you back door attack

Yeh you're dreaming again
Dreaming again

You're running out of reasons
You're running out of time
Ya got a good thing going
So what are you waiting, what are you waiting, what are you waiting for?

You're running out of reasons
So what are you waiting, what are you waiting, what are you waiting, what are you waiting for?
