

Lucy's About to Lose Her Mind

Huntingtons

but that's ok man
''cause it won't be her first time she sits around and goes insane i try to help her but she says it's not the same she's not looking for anybody's help she's gonna figure it out for herself

lucy, lucy, lucy, lucy

she's tired of waiting she's gonna break down and cry she's mullin' over it again but when you ask she'll be the first to say nothin' we'll you can say she's crazy when she starts to shout ''cause nobody ever understands just what she's screamin' about and you can say she's lost it hangin' out her window and yellin' at all the punks down in the street below
