

Unclean

Hurt

You'll always have my love,
Even though you loved with nothing
'Cause I was dumb enough
To let you slip right through

You touched and you moved me
But don't care about me
I feel so, so dirty
Don't touch me
I'm unclean again

And I will hold a grudge
For the ones that left me broken hearted
When I was stupid enough
That I believed in you

You touched and you moved me
But don't care about me
I feel so, so dirty
Don't touch me
I'm unclean again

And I wish you would remember when
I wish you would remember when
I said I-
And I wish you would remember when
I wish you would remember when
I said I-

Tell me all your needs
Give me all your needs
Show me on your knees
Suck it down to size

You touched and you moved me
But don't care about me
I feel so, so dirty
Don't touch me
I'm unclean again

And I wish you would remember when
I wish you would remember when
I said I-
And I wish you would remember when
I wish you would remember when
I said I-
