

Let Them All In

I Am Kloot

The pinball cracks my sidekick grin
Too tired to relax so I let them in
The big black blue
My pale green eyes
Too many sides to take this time to decide

I can't hear the words for the sound of the information
I haven't got a job or an 'obby or an occupation
Is this a free-load trip or an ordinary situation that I'm in?
Let 'em all in
Let 'em all in
Go ahead, let 'em in

The turnstiles crack, the touts collide

Too many sides to take this time to decide
Which way is out to get me in
You fail you break, it's your mistake, I've seen you grin

I can't hear the words for the sound of the information
I haven't got a job or an hobby or an occupation
Is this a free-load trip or an ordinary situation that I'm in?

Let 'em all in
Let 'em all in
Go ahead, let 'em in

Let 'em all in
Let 'em all in
Go ahead, let 'em in
