

2 Short Breaths in 2 Minute Days

I Set My Friends on Fire

The silence was ominous
My house is autonomous
Blood on my conscience I still haven't rinsed
You're still there I'm convinced

You would think it's intentional
The love and the hate was identical
In front of me undetectable
They were gazing a spectacle
You couldn't tell the difference
I had the longest sword
You couldn't tell the difference
Won it all with no reward

The silence was ominous
My house is autonomous
Blood on my conscience I still haven't rinsed
You're still there I'm convinced

I swear I saw you
I swear I saw you...
Don't come into my room
When I'm trying to lay my eyes cause
I can't take this anymore
I can't take this anymore...

Imaginable the unthinkable
Forgiving the unforgivable
Life was just so unlivable
The whole time I was fucking miserable
I couldn't tell the difference
I couldn't tell the difference...
